Purpose Statement
The particular object for which the Fraternity is formed is to perpetuate among a group of college women a spirit of mutual assistance and understanding, to maintain high standards of scholarship, to develop womanhood, to strive for the attainment of high ideals in college, community and personal life, and to train for leadership and a sense of responsibility for the welfare of others; and in order to carry out such purposes, to promote the establishment of chapters at various colleges and universities in the United States and Canada.

Non-Discrimination Policy
Alpha Gamma Delta Fraternity does not discriminate based on race, color, creed, ethnic origin, religion, disability or sexual preference. There is no place for discrimination in Alpha Gamma Delta’s membership selection process. The Fraternity set forth this policy to assist, support and educate its chapters. The local chapters and their members are solely responsible for developing procedures to implement this policy and for disciplining those who violate this policy. Confirmed violations of the policy of are grounds for disciplinary action by International Council.

Member Selection and Dismissal
It is the privilege of every initiated undergraduate member of Alpha Gamma Delta to participate in the selection of a chapter’s new members. New members in Alpha Gamma Delta are charged with representing the Fraternity’s values and ideals.

Release Figures Methodology Policy
- Chapters must abide by the carry figure provided to them by the Release Figures Methodology Specialist.
- Chapters must complete flex lists as requested by Release Figures Methodology Specialist.
- If it is determined that a carry figure cannot be followed, the Membership Advisor or the Chapter Advisor must telephone the Regional Recruitment Coordinator, Director of Recruitment, or International Vice President-Membership for approval prior to submitting the invitation list for the event.

Invitation to Membership
Throughout the Recruitment process, Alpha Gamma Delta members have the opportunity to build relationships with Potential New Members who share the same values. At the end of the process, Potential New Members may be given an invitation to membership into the Fraternity based on their leadership skills, academic achievement and relationships with members of the chapter.

Scholastic Achievement
- Each Potential New Member’s scholarship must be evaluated prior to the start of Recruitment events. Potential New Members must have a GPA of a 2.3 to be considered for membership in Alpha Gamma Delta.
- The high school GPA will be used to evaluate Potential New Members who are incoming freshman.
- The college GPA will be used to evaluate Potential New Members who have accumulated 12 or more college hours.

Officer Selection and Dismissal

Time of Elections
Each chapter of Alpha Gamma Delta Fraternity shall determine its own schedule for election of officers. Executive Council determines the appropriate time schedule for officer election by coordinating the campus calendar and the chapter calendar.

Member Obligations
Initiated members and new members of Alpha Gamma Delta have a responsibility and obligation to elect the most qualified individual to each office.

Eligibility of Members to Vote
A member must be a full-time student and be in Good Standing to be eligible to vote for chapter officers.
Voting Procedure
Collegiate members in Good Standing are eligible to complete an Interest Form and Nominating Ballot. The Election Committee reviews the Interest Forms and Nominating Ballots and creates the Election Ballot. Beginning with the Chapter President position, each member in Good Standing shall cast a secret, written vote, naming the candidate for President whom she believes would best fill the position. Members’ votes are collected and counted by the Election Committee. To be elected, a candidate must receive a majority of the votes cast by those members in Good Standing and in attendance. In cases when there is no majority, a second ballot is taken.

Conditions for Officer Removal
An officer shall be removed from office by Executive Council for failure to fulfill her officer duties or if she no longer is eligible to hold office.

A collegiate member may be removed from office for the following reasons:
• Failure to fulfill the general duties of a Chapter Council and/or Executive Council officer.
• Failure to fulfill specific duties of her office as specified in her Officer Team Handbook;
• Failure to maintain chapter room secrecy of Executive Council;
• Failure to uphold the fiduciary responsibilities of the office;
• Immoral conduct;
• Disruptive behavior;
• Dishonorable conduct;
• Failure to remain in Good Standing because of her grade point average; or
• Not being a full-time student as defined by the college/university.
