STRIDE

Article I- Name, Purpose, and Non-Discrimination Policy

Section 1: Name:
STRIDE (Seeking to Reclaim our Identity, Direction, and Energy)

Section 2: Purpose: STRIDE is an organization with a two-fold purpose: 1) to bring awareness about sexual violence to The Ohio State University and to the Columbus community through running/racing and 2) to provide support to survivors and allies through the power of social connection through running or walking. Sexual violence can impact our physical health, emotional/psychological health, our social lifestyle, and our spiritual practice. Running and walking can have a profound, positive impact on these aspects of our lives and allows survivors another avenue to reclaim our lives.

We welcome all Ohio State students who have a commitment to bringing awareness to sexual assault.

Mission Statement: STRIDE is for all students who seek to gather for running and walking events (group runs/walks and/or participation in races) in an effort to bring awareness about sexual violence to The Ohio State University and to the Columbus community. STRIDE will also unite allies and students who have experienced sexual violence with the aim that running can be a positive impact on the healing from sexual violence and that through social connection the silence and shame surrounding sexual assault can be lessened. STRIDE will provide a supportive and welcoming community for survivors of sexual assault and their allies, will engage the wider Ohio State community by bringing awareness to sexual assault, and will connect with other sexual assault and physical activity groups across campus.

Our initiatives include the following:
1. Provide regular group runs/walks for allies and sexual assault survivors to increase survivors’ feelings of support and self-worth and decrease feelings of isolation and shame.
2. Increase the awareness of sexual assault in our community and decrease survivors’ feelings of stigma by creating and wearing STRIDE running shirts during group runs and races.
3. Connect our members through social media (i.e., Facebook) to ask questions related to running, get advice, and find partners for running.
4. To provide encouragement and support to survivors and allies who are interested in running.
5. Increase awareness of sexual assault issues, provide advocacy for sexual assault survivors, and create a supportive and social space for survivors and allies.
