Article I: Name, Purpose, and Non-Discrimination Policy of the Organization

Section 1: Name
Disc Golf Alliance at The Ohio State University

Section 2: Purpose Statement:
To promote health, inclusion, and sportsmanship for all people, regardless of background, identity, or ability. To further education and awareness of both the sport and environmental issues at the Ohio State University and beyond. To build a community comprised of both recreational and competitive disc golf enthusiasts

Section 3: Goals
1. The establishment of a series of introductory disc golf courses instructing the basics to make beginners more comfortable with the sport.
2. Regular casual club rounds and a semi-competitive league.
3. Planning and execution of an open tournament on campus.
4. Connect members of the disc golf community at Ohio State.
5. Reach out to disc golf manufacturers concerning sponsorship and promotional programs.

Section 4: Non-Discrimination Policy
The Disc Golf Alliance and its members shall not discriminate against anyone based on their ability, age, color, disability, gender identity or expression, national origin, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, or veteran status.

Article II: Membership
Section 1: Qualifications and categories of membership.
Any student, faculty, alumni, or disc golf professional has the option to be a member of the Disc Golf Alliance. Voting membership is limited to currently enrolled students of The Ohio State University. To be a voting member a student must attend two DGA events to be eligible to vote for that year. If a competitive team within the club is established then that team has a right to choose its players based on ability and sportsmanship.

Article III: Organization Leadership
If the Executive board deems the any Executive Member unfit for the club then they may move to impeach that executive based on a plurality vote. If the vote to impeach succeeds the process is then moved to the general assembly. A 75% majority is needed from the general assembly to remove the executive from office. Removal of the executive would lead to an immediate election by the general assembly for a new executive.
President - The Vice President becomes the President departure of the previous President. If the Vice President will not be available after the President departs the club, the new President is appointed by the previous President... The duties and responsibilities of the President include but are not limited to: administration, club email, chair of the executive committee, conduct all club meetings and oversee the overall success of the club.

Vice President - Appointed by the President. Serves until graduation, resignation, or otherwise removed. Upon departure of the President for any reason, the Vice President takes up the position of club President. The Vice President is responsible for running executive committee meetings as well as filling in for the President when necessary.

Treasurer - The Treasurer is to be appointed by the President and Vice President. The duties and responsibilities of the Treasurer include but are not limited to: management of club funds, setting the semester’s budget in collaboration with the Executive Committee, collection of member dues, merchandise fees, and fundraising monies.

Article IV: Executive Committee
The Executive committee is comprised of the President, Vice President, Treasurer, and Committee Chairs. This committee is responsible for any events not delegated to a committee. The Committee must meet at least twice per semester and more meetings can be created if deemed necessary by the President, Vice President, or Treasurer. The President has the power to call an emergency if deemed necessary. If a new committee is created the committee chair is then added to the Executive Committee.

Article V: Standing Committees
A new section should be added at the bottom of this article for any active committees. When a committee is dissolved, it should be removed from this article.

The Executive Committee should update the goals and expectations of each committee once per semester. Specific goals and duties of committees should be recorded in Article IV of the By-Laws.

Section 1: Establishment of Committees
A committee can be created by the Executive Committee to accomplish specific goals. The Executive Committee must layout a set of goals, a committee chair, and decide a dissolution date, which may be indefinite. A majority of the Executive Committee must agree to create a new Committee.

A. Eligibility for Committee Chair
An Executive Committee member cannot be appointed to a committee chair position, unless no other eligible or willing general members exist. Committee chairs should be students who have contributed to the Disc Golf Alliance in the past and have strong organizational and planning skills.
B. Responsibilities of Committee Chairs
Committee Chairs are responsible for all those things which other Executive Committee members are responsible, in addition to the following: running committee meetings, executing goals laid out by the Executive Committee, and reporting to the Executive Committee on their progress.

Article VI: Method of Removing Members
Anyone who conducts themselves in a malicious, ill-willed, or unsportsmanlike manner will be immediately removed from the club. A zero tolerance policy will be place in order to maintain the integrity of the club. Once banned, a person may not rejoin the club.

Section 1: Impeachment of Executive Committee Members
In the event that an Executive Committee member is not fulfilling all obligations and expectations, they may be subject to impeachment. In order to move to impeach, a 2/3 majority of the remaining Committee members must agree that it is necessary. Once an impeachment has been made, the impeached Executive Committee member will be removed following a majority vote by the voting members. Removal must be based solely on position performance.

Section 2: Vacancy on the Executive Committee
In the event of a vacancy on the Executive Committee, it should be filled immediately following the usual procedures, unless otherwise noted below

A. Vacancy of President
   a. If the position of President should become vacant during the term, the Vice President will become President immediately. The new President must then appoint a replacement Vice President. If the Vice Presidency should also be vacant, the remainder of the Executive Board shall vote for both a President and Vice President.

Article VII: Meetings of the Organization
There are no set or mandatory meetings other than that of the Executive Committee, but the Executive Committee maintains the right to create meetings. The president will decide the punishment of any Executive Committee member who should fail to attend. Some events may require attendance at a pre-event meeting to be eligible to participate.

Article VIII: Advisor Qualifications and Responsibilities
Advisors of student organizations must be members of the University faculty or Administrative & Professional staff. The advisor should assist in the following: department negotiations, administrator relations, budgetary implementation, keeping Executive Committee on task.

Article IX: Method of Amending Constitution
Amendments to the Constitution may be proposed during executive board’s meetings. Once approved by a plurality of the board, the amendment should be written out and communicated to all members of the club. A voting date should be set at least seven days from the date of communication of the amendment. Amendments will pass with 2/3 approval of voting members of the club.

Committee creation follows the method in Article V, Section 1, rather than this method of amending the constitution.

Article X: Founder Contribution

The President of the club must consult with the founders of the club, Wesley J. Wehrle and William D. Schnicke, II, once a semester to discuss the following: current status of the club, direction and goals of the club, brainstorming of ideas.
By-Laws
Disc Golf Alliance

Article I: Parliamentary Authority
The rules contained in the Disc Golf Alliance at The Ohio State University’s Constitution shall govern the organization in all cases to which they are applicable, and in which they are not inconsistent with the by-laws of this organization.

Article II: Membership
Membership of the Disc Golf Alliance is entirely open. Interested individuals must simply contact the club in some way and participate. However, participation in some events may require pre-registration or meeting attendance.

Article III: Voting Procedure
Votes on general motions or club decisions can be taken either in person or online, using an established polling platform. The Executive Committee is encouraged to seek member input frequently in decision making.

Votes on Constitutional and By-Law amendments must be made at a general meeting or special voting assembly with a quorum of members present.

At a voting assembly, at least 30 minutes must be allowed for members to question and discuss the proposed change before voting takes place. This time can be waived if the general assembly unanimously agrees.

Voting assemblies must be announced at least seven days in advance, with the subject of the vote included in the announcement. Provisions should be made for those unable to attend the assembly.

Article IV: Standing Committees and Their Goals
There are currently no standing committees.

Article V: Method of Amending By-Laws
Amendments to the By-Laws may be proposed during executive board’s meetings. Once approved by a plurality of the board, the amendment should be written out and communicated to all members of the club. A voting date should be set at least seven days from the date of communication of the amendment. Amendments will pass with a majority approval of voting members of the club.

Article IV of the By-Laws is amended following the method in the Constitution, Article V, rather than this method of amending the By-Laws.
