Purpose: The purpose of the Truancy Mediation Project is to train mediators and provide mediation for students in Columbus facing truancy in order to problem-solve through mediation in lieu of sending the student through the judicial system.

Non-discrimination policy: This organization and its members shall not discriminate against any individual(s) for reasons of age, color, disability, gender identity or expression, national origin, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, or veteran status.

Membership: Voting membership is limited to the Ohio State University Moritz College of Law students who have completed truancy mediation training. The advisor of the Truancy Mediation Project will be the Langdon Fellow in Dispute Resolution or another faculty member involved in the Alternative Dispute Resolution program.

Organization Leadership: There will be President, Vice-President, and Treasurer positions filled by voting members in their 2nd and 3rd year of law school.

Method of Selecting and Removing Officers: Officers will be selected by the current leaders or voted on by all members each spring. An officer may serve no more than one year in each position. An officer will leave the officer after one year or if a majority of the Truancy Mediation Project voting members elect to remove the officer and the Faculty Advisor approves the removal of the officer.

Required meetings: All members must attend the Mediator Training in the fall.

Amendments: This Constitution may be amended by any member of the organization through unanimous consent of the leaders or a majority of all of the members.
