Our purpose as the Undergraduate Art Student Council is to unify each area of the art department and/or anyone who is remotely interested in art, so that we will have a successful Open House at the end of the semester. Our mission is to make sure that we reach out to anyone who is in the art field, scholars group, or even has a slight interest in art as well as creating a safe and welcoming environment for our members. We, Undergraduate Art Student Council, want to make sure that we leave no stone unturned as we get even more involved on campus as well as the entire art community on campus.

The Undergraduate Art Student Council is an open membership organization. In doing so we do request that our members have a legit interest in art and or is already in the art department. Upon requesting to join, each member must note that it is there responsibility to contact the president, vice president, treasurer, or advisor if they are seeking advise or help. Removal of members will only happen if they are not consistent on meeting our requirements of coming to most meetings, held biweekly, and or are not present for the Open House or assist with volunteering to help set up the Open House towards the end of the semester. Removal of a member can also happen if said member doesn’t uphold to University policies such as academics, hazing, zero tolerance, and other policies affiliated with The Ohio State University.

Each position is hand picked specifically to the person’s specific ability that will help the organization. The Vice President will oversee each realm of the organization such as meetings, events, fundraising and so forth. They will uphold the responsibility to take over the organization if anytime the President can not meet the requirements set by the organization and the University. As Treasurer, their position is to be in charge of finances such as budgets, accounts, and financial statements. They are also to liaise with designated staff about our fiscal matters and statements. The treasurer is to ensure that appropriate financial systems and controls are in place, that record keeping and accounts meet the conditions for the University and to ensure compliance with the organization and University. As the Secretary, they will need to ensure that appointments, specific notes, emails, meeting notes, and any other important information, is to be reported back to either the President or Vice President. The role of the Advisor is to oversee the organization is running smoothly and to assist in any ideas or issues that the organization is confronted with.

Upon requesting and obtaining an officer position, each officer must uphold the policies and requirements set upon the University and organization. If said officer choses not to follow the rules and policies, then they shall be removed at once and will be replaced with someone else who will fully complete the requirements set by the University and organization.

Disclosure: “This organization and its members shall not discriminate against any individual(s) for reasons of age, color, disability, gender identity or expression, national origin, race, religion, sex orientation, or veteran status.”