Constitution:

Article 1:

- Section 1: Organization Title: Hilarity For Charity at The Ohio State University.
- Section 2: Purpose: Hilarity for Charity is a national organization founded by Seth Rogen and Lauren Miller that raises money for the National Alzheimer’s Association. This organization’s specific purpose is to raise awareness and money for The National Alzheimer’s Association.
- Section 3: This organization and its members shall not discriminate against any individual(s) for reasons of age, race, disability, gender identity or expression, sexual orientation, religion, academic success, national origin, sex, or veteran status.

Article 2:

Membership will be open to any undergraduate student who attends The Ohio State University. Faculty, graduate students, alumni, professionals and persons other than undergraduate students can also become honorary, non-voting associate members.

Article 3:

Duties and Responsibilities of Club Officers

- President:
  - Oversight of club actions and final approval over club decisions if there were to be a tie in voting.
  - Carry out the vision of the organization and ensure that The Ohio State University Chapter is in accordance with the National Organization’s purposes.
  - Directs general body meetings. Must be in attendance for all meetings of the general body and executive board except under reasonable circumstances.
  - Responsible for social media outreach.
  - May have the responsibility of sending emails to the general body.
  - May delegate responsibilities to other officers when necessary.

- Vice-President:
  - Oversight of club actions. Assist president with any concerns/requests.
  - Directs a general body meeting if under reasonable circumstances/the president is unable to attend.

- Treasurer:
  - Oversee and approve all financial actions of the club
  - Accountable for the tally of incoming donations as well as club expenditures.

- Secretary
  - Expected to attend all meetings except under reasonable circumstances.
  - Expected to annotate minutes throughout every club meeting.
  - Responsible for sending out minutes after meetings when necessary.
  - May be responsible for sending emails to the general body.

- Fundraising Chair
- Responsible for acquiring sponsorships and organizing events that will benefit the club monetarily.

- Constitutional Representative
  - Responsible for holding the organization accountable to its constitution.
  - Expected to make sure the constitution is up to date in accordance with the organization’s interests and functioning needs.
  - Has the ability to make syntax/grammatical adjustments to the constitution when necessary, however content edits must be brought to the attention of the general body and executive board for voting.

Article 4:
The six club officers will comprise the executive board. This board will ensure that general body meetings and club operations are running in accordance with the club objectives and mission statement. The executive board will also determine the organization’s fundraising goals and will keep the chapter accountable for meeting these goals.

Article 6:
The cofounders will appoint the initial executive board and act as the president and vice president of the club. Future executive board members will be determined annually by a majority vote of active club members at the end of spring semesters.

Article 7:
The advisor will act as a policy interpreter and mentor to the club, offering professional advice when requested. Personal involvement is at the discretion of the advisor.

Article 8:
A meeting for all general body members will be required to occur at least monthly. The executive board will decide the time, date, and place. The executive board will mandate attendance policies for the general members; times of the meetings of the executive board will take place at the discretion of the board members.

Article 9:
The constitution may be amended if a majority vote is passed within both the general body and the executive board. Should a constitutional amendment be deemed necessary, the general body and executive board will hold a private meeting in which amendments will be discussed and made based on majority vote.

Article 10:
The club will disband in the case that there is a realistic possibility of debt or lacking membership. If disbandment happens, all club assets will be donated to the Ohio Union for future use. All money left over will be donated to the National Alzheimer’s Association.

Bylaws:
Article 1:
-The majority will have primary decision-making as long as the minority is able to express their viewpoint and absentees accounted for.
Article 2:
In order to gain membership, one must attend general body meetings on a recognizably regular basis. A student may gain membership at any point during the semester under the discretion of the executive board. Members will be terminated if they exhibit disorderly conduct. This termination will be decided by a majority vote of the executive board.

Article 3:
All general body members have the opportunity to run for club officers. At a general body meeting, they will present a speech that details their qualifications, and club members will vote anonymously for their preferred candidate. Members may run for only one position. Members must be present to run for an officer position and elections will occur towards the end of the academic year. The current secretary will tally the votes and announce them at the end of the meeting at which elections took place.

Article 4:
The executive committee consists of the elected club officers. Required meeting times for the executive board will be discussed when necessary and occur at their discretion.

Article 6:
The advisor is not required to attend the club meetings. The advisor may get involved as much as he or she so chooses. The advisor is required to step in for assistance when requested.

Article 7:
The minimum number of club participants in order for club functions is up to the discretion of the executive board.

Article 8:
The constitution will be amended by a majority vote within the general body and in the executive board.