- Creates opportunities for BSGO members to be involved in community service/philanthropic activities.

Article IV - Executive Committee: Size and composition of the Committee
The executive committee comprises the President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer and Service/Social Chair. The purpose of the executive committee will be to represent the organization as a whole in issues related to the well being of the student body. The executive committee will meet at least one week prior to a general meeting to discuss issues to be presented to the general body.

An advisory panel, composed of the executive board of the previous year, will be available to offer thoughtful insight to the members of the current executive board regarding executive duties as well as general operational concerns. The president of the previous year’s executive board will serve as the student liaison between the current executive board and the advisory panel. The advisory panel will not have voting authority. Any and/or all members of the advisory panel will attend executive meetings at the request of the current executive board.

A presentation of the executive positions by the current executive board will be made the 1st Friday of the fall semester to the incoming class. Nominations for executive positions will be made by email to the current president, and are due the following Thursday at 5:00pm. Voting will be held the 2nd Friday of fall semester.

Article V - Standing Committees: Names, purpose, and composition (Ad-Hoc committees)
There are no standing committees within this organization. Ad-hoc committees will be established on a need be basis to help plan and organize special events.

Article VI - Method of Selecting and/or Removing Officers and Members
The organization is open to all students that are active graduate students in the Biomedical Sciences Graduate Program (BSGP) which is part of The Ohio State University’s Medical School. It is also open to students that are MD/PhD students and also accepted in the BSGP. Members are not selected nor removed as long as they are a student of the BSGP.

Officers are selected by an election vote during the Fall Semester by the first year graduate students in BSGP. Students can nominate themselves or others for positions. If multiple students are nominated for the same position then an election will be held. The first year students will vote for which candidates should have which positions.

Officers can be removed from their position at any time by a majority vote of the first year graduate students. Officers can also step down at any time if they have a replacement for the position that the first year graduate students agree to elect into the position. Officers can also be asked to step down by the faculty advisor.
In the event that a general member needs to be removed because of misconduct an election will be held amongst the officers of the club. Majority vote will decide if the member is to be removed from the organization. In the case of a tie then the faculty advisor will make the final decision. Once removed from the organization that person cannot rejoin. They can appeal this exiled status to the faculty advisor who will decide if this person is able to partake in organization events.

Article VII - Adviser(s) or Advisory Board: Qualification Criteria

The adviser(s) for BSGO will be a director or instructor of the Biomedical Sciences Graduate Program or a director or instructor of the M.D./Ph.D. program. If the same person fulfills both positions, then there will only be one adviser.

Article VIII - Meetings of the Organization: Required meetings and their frequency

General meetings of the organization will be held at a minimum of one time per quarter including the summer semester. If an issue arises during an interim period, the executive committee may call additional meetings.

Article IX - Method of Amending Constitution: Proposals, notice, and voting requirements

Section 1 - Amendments: Any executive committee member may submit amendments. A vote of the executive committee will take place at the next meeting and must be unanimous for the amendment to go forward. If the amendment goes forward, the details are to be debated, and proper language determined for presentation to the main body. A full member of BSGO may also present amendments. Said amendments must be in writing and contain the signatures of four-fifths members. The amendment is then presented to the executive committee; the executive committee is then required to follow the process laid out in Article IX section 2.

Section 2 - The Executive Committee will present the amendment to the main body (via written documentation), and a vote will be taken on said proposal at the next appropriate meeting. A general announcement of the voting date must be made to the main group list at least one week prior to voting. A vote of at least three fourths of the voting membership present is required to pass the said amendment.

Article X - Method of Dissolution of Organization

The executive committee has the authority to begin the disbanding of BSGO. Said motion must first pass the executive committee unanimously. If said vote is successful, the main group must also pass the motion by a three-fourths vote. If the group decides to dissolve, the executive committee is responsible to take care of all debts incurred by the group through the solicitation of donations and/or fundraising activities.
