WEEK 2019

FEATURED SESSIONS FOR GRADUATE AND PROFESSIONAL STUDENTS

Leadership Week is a university-wide collaboration to strengthen the culture of student leadership at Ohio State. While all students are welcome to attend all sessions, we want to feature a few sessions designed with graduate and professional students in mind who want to strengthen their leadership abilities.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 21

Fireside Chats for Grad/Prof Student Orgs

12:30 – 1:30 p.m.

Ohio Union, Keith B. Key Center Lounge

Join fellow student org leaders around the KBK Center Lounge fireplace to connect and share ideas and gain access to campus resources. This week's topic is Commitment to Social Change. Light lunch will be provided.

CE

Recovery is Spoken Here

1 – 2 p.m.

RPAC, Meeting Rooms

This training for graduate and professional students fosters an environment where students in or seeking recovery feel accepted by their peers, are encouraged to share about their recovery, feel comfortable asking for help, and are celebrated by the Ohio State community.

W, I

Facilitating LENA and Creating a Plan for Growth

1 – 2 p.m.

Ohio Union, Suzanne Sharer Room

Participants will have the opportunity to complete activities to reflect on their leadership style, as well as provide feedback about the new Leadership Education Needs Assessment Facilitator's Guide.

PE

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 23

Implicit Bias in Leadership for Graduate and Professional Students

2 – 3:30 p.m.

Ohio Union, Student-Alumni Council Room

Come learn about how your own biases and those of others can impact leadership contexts. From understanding power and privilege to taking some time for critical self-reflection, you have the ability to be a more inclusive leader.

I

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 24

Body Positivity: Leading the Movement

2 – 3 p.m.

RPAC, Dave Griner Room

The program encourages participants to challenge the "ideal" with activities and discussion on how to create a positive campus culture.

W, I, PE

International Leadership

4:30 – 6 p.m.

Ohio Union, Hays Cape Room

Leadership is a learned process, and sometimes that process is difficult enough when you are on your home country's soil. Learn necessary skills and knowledge to lead in international situations.

CE, CD

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 25

How to Become a Self-Aware Leader: The BUILD Leadership Assessment

10 – 11:30 a.m.

Mason Hall 205 - Rotunda

This gives students insight into their leadership strengths and opportunities for growth based on the Fisher College of Business's BUILD leadership assessment.

PE

Women in Politics, A Panel Discussion

4:30 – 6 p.m.

Ohio Union, Student-Alumni Council Room

Join OSU Votes in a moderated Q&A of local women who hold elected and appointed political positions, as they speak on what they have learned and what women interested in going into politics need to know.
