Community Engagement

Connection to Student Organizations, Affinity with the University, Commitment to Social Change
Commitment to Social Change

A responsible relationship with the community, built by working interdependently with others to address social issues on a local, national, and/or global scale
Advocacy – supporting an idea or cause through public and private communications, and collecting evidence to support one’s position
Examples:
• Speaking or writing to individuals, groups, or elected officials on behalf of a cause
• Sharing a video about your cause on social media

Charitable Volunteerism – addressing immediate needs, most often through social service agencies, churches, or schools
Examples:
• Tutoring a child or an adult once a week
• Serving food or registering people at a soup kitchen or shelter

Community & Economic Development – acting to provide economic opportunities and improve social conditions in a sustainable way
Examples:
• Developing marketing plans, websites, or other supports to help small businesses grow
• Providing microloans or training to aspiring entrepreneurs

Community-Based Participatory Research – conducting research in partnership with members of a community with an intention to benefit the community
Examples:
• Defining a research agenda and implementing each aspect of research projects with local stakeholders
• Jointly publishing results to ensure they reach public as well as academic audiences

Community-Building – strengthening through interpersonal connections the capacity of local residents and associations to work together
Examples:
• Creating local history projects profiling both long-time and new residents
• Organizing neighborhood clean-ups or National Night Out activities

Community Organizing – bringing people together to act in their shared self-interest
Examples:
• Mapping the skills, interests, relationships, and other assets of residents to inform work on particular issues
• Developing an issue campaign to call for change in a troubling practice, such as the overuse of school suspensions

Deliberative Dialogue – exchanging and weighing different ideas, perspectives, and approaches around particular issues in a public setting
Examples:
• Organizing ongoing local discussion circles
• Using a National Issues Forums guide to prompt a group to consider multiple options on an issue

Informal Associations & Mutual Aid – unpaid, collaborative work or sharing of resources by people seeing to improve their collective quality of life
Examples:
• Starting a support group around an issue of concern
• Participating in disaster relief efforts or opening your home to a displaced person

Philanthropy – Donating money to increase the well-being of humankind or advance another social good
Examples:
• Holding a fundraiser for a nonprofit organization
• Providing cash or in-kind donations yourself

Protests & Demonstrations – expressing public disagreement with a situation or policy in a visible, non-violent way
Examples:
• Participating in rallies or marches in support of a cause
• Creating public visual or performance art intended to draw attention to an issue

Social Entrepreneurship – creating a new venture or using entrepreneurial principles to change an existing one
Examples:
• Launching a business with a clear social benefit
• Developing a new product that affordably provides clean water to people in areas without it

Socially Responsible Daily Behavior – acting on one’s values and civic commitments in one’s personal and professional life
Examples:
• Challenging racist or sexist words or behavior
• Buying from locally owned or socially responsible businesses

Voting & Formal Political Activities – mobilizing others to influence public policy through formal political channels – and participating yourself
Examples:
• Organizing a voter registration drive
• Running for public office or working or volunteering on another candidate’s campaign
