Name, Purpose, and Non-Discrimination Policy:

-Name: Cannabis Club at Ohio State

-Purpose: To provide peer-oriented resources and establish networking amongst students who anticipate entering the cannabis industry upon graduation. To establish a foundation of extracurricular learning and activities that will fill the void of services not provided by the university concerning the academic and agricultural aspects of the cannabis industry.

Furthermore, to create space and resources for critical discussion of the unique social, and economic hurdles facing the cannabis industry and to provide data-driven counterpoints to decades of misinformation and criminalization of this useful food, fuel, forage, fiber, and medicine crop.

-Non-Discrimination Policy: This organization and its members shan't discriminate against any individual(s) for circumstances including but not limited to: age, color, disability, gender identity or expression, national origin, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, or veteran status.

Article II

Membership:

-All currently enrolled Ohio State students are welcome to become members, there are no prerequisite qualifications to become a member. Students in the college of food, agriculture, and environmental sciences are preferred members although students of all majors, academic ranks, and backgrounds are welcome. Members may come and go to meetings they see fit, although two general meetings and attendance at 50% of events hosted are required for membership each academic term except for summer. Student members may be suspended with a majority vote of the leaders of the club. The organization reserves the right to address member or event attendee behavior where the member or event attendee's behavior is disruptive or otherwise not in alignment with the organization's constitution.

Article III

Methods for Removing Members and Executive Officers:

a. If a member engages in behavior that is detrimental to the organization, or violates the club constitution or by-laws, the member may be removed through a majority vote of the officers in consultation with the organization's advisor.

b. Any elected officer of the club may be removed from their position for cause. Cause for removal includes, but is not limited to: violation of the constitution or by-laws, failure to perform duties, or any behavior that is detrimental to the organization. The Executive Committee may act for removal upon a two-thirds affirmative vote of the executive board in consultation with the organization's advisor.
