

Buckeye Gaming Collective Constitution

Article I - Name, Purpose, and Non-Discrimination Policy of the Organization:

Section 1 - Name:

Buckeye Gaming Collective (BGC)

Section 2 - Purpose:

The purpose of Buckeye Gaming Collective is to galvanize recreational and competitive video game players, advance the local gaming scene, foster a community for students of the Ohio State University interested in gaming, pursue and solidify collegiate esports at the University in conjunction with The Ohio State University, and perform philanthropy and charity work for local causes and organizations related to gaming such as Extra Life.

Section 3 - What We Do:

Buckeye Gaming Collective hosts casual and competitive gaming events such as tournaments, LANs, and viewing parties, as well as manage and support competitive esports teams in order to foster growth in the collegiate esports scene. We host and participate in local charity events in order to beneficially impact the community and maintain a positive image of the industry and its consumers. We also assist those wanting to work in the video game industry by fostering connections with employers and providing the experiences and training required to develop essential skills for working within the industry.

Section 4 - Non-Discrimination Policy:

This organization and its members shall not discriminate against any individual(s) for reasons of age, color, disability, gender identity or expression, national origin, ethnicity/race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, veteran status, and/or skill-level.

This organization shall maintain a Faculty Advisor position to be held only by a faculty member or administrative professional staff member of The Ohio State University. If the Faculty Advisor's position becomes vacant, a new Faculty Advisor will be appointed by a unanimous decision among the Executive Board.

Section 2 - Responsibilities:

The general duties of the Faculty Advisor shall be to advise the Executive Board and organization when necessary. The Faculty Advisor shall serve as the final arbiter for any irresolvable disputes, and any approval not requiring a representative from The Ohio State University can be conducted through email.

Article IV - Elections, and Method of Selecting and/or Removing Officers.

Section 1 - Executive Board Elections and Method of Selecting Officers:

The Executive Board elections are to be held once per academic school year, at least one month prior to the end of Spring Semester. Every Executive Board Officer position will be up for election and/or re-election, as every Executive Board term is one year. Executive Board Elections shall take place in several phases:

Nominations: The nominations window opens two weeks before elections are held and closes after one week of being open. Only Voting Members (see Article II for requirements) may nominate or be nominated for a position. Voting Members may nominate themselves and/or other members. Members who are nominated must graciously accept or respectfully decline the nomination before Elections Day, happening seven days after the nomination window closes.

Post Nominations: The list of nominated members will be sent out to Voting Members once the nominations window closes and will be updated to reflect acceptances and denials until Elections Day. Nominees may submit their resume before Elections Day, happening the week after the nominations window closes. Nominees interested in running for an Executive Board position must prepare a speech of no more than three minutes and be prepared to answer questions. Any resumes submitted will be made available to Voting Members.

Elections: Elections shall be run by the highest ranking Executive Board Members that is not running for a position. If all Executive Board Members are running for a position, the previous year's president, highest ranking Executive Board Members, or Advisor shall run the election. Elections for positions will occur in the order listed in Article II Section 2. Election Day will run as follows:

Presentation:

- At least 50% of Voting Members must be present to conduct Elections. If 50% cannot be reached within three attempts, then a mandatory absentee vote will occur.
 - After moving to begin elections, nominees will be brought before the group one at a time, with all other nominees for the position standing outside of the room until their time to present. The order of nominees will be determined alphabetically by last name.
- Each nominee will present to the group on their speech. The presentation time will be agreed on by the group but is suggested to be three minutes, followed by a questions and answers session that lasts a maximum of five minutes.

Discussion:

- Following all nominee speeches for a position, Voting Members will have time to civilly discuss platforms positives and concerns, some of which may include time management, experience, and so on.

Voting:

- Votes will be done by secret ballot. On slips of paper, voters will write the name of their choice or “abstain,” meaning they do not choose any of the nominees. If a majority of present Voting Members has not been reached by one candidate, the top candidates who make up the majority of votes will have a runoff vote, where voters are told the top two and must choose between the two on another slip of paper.
- Once voting has concluded for a position, the Officer running the election shall announce the newly elected Executive Board Officer.

Trickle-down: When an Officer is successfully voted on, the remaining nominees will be asked if they would like to “trickle-down” to any of the next positions to be voted on.

Title Transfer: Once the Election has concluded, all current Executive Board members shall transfer their Officer titles to the newly elected Executive Board members. Each position is responsible for going through the appropriate Transition Guide and training the newly elected Officer in their position.

Section 2 - Minor Board Selection:

Minor Board Selection will occur within one week of the conclusion of Executive Board Elections. Every Minor Board position will be up for selection and/or re-selection, as every Minor Board position term lasts until the new Executive Board is elected. Minor Board Selection shall take place in two phases:

Application:

- Online applications will be opened within a week of the conclusion of Executive Board Elections. Applications must include, at the minimum: name, Discord username, email, and resume and/or relevant experience.

Selection:

- Selection of all Minor Board positions, except for Team Managers, must be completed by the Executive Board within two weeks of the Minor Board Application deadline. Team Managers will be voted on by prior Team Members, with the candidate with majority votes receiving the position. If a majority of Team Players has not been reached by one candidate, the top candidates who make up the majority of votes will have a runoff vote, where voters are told the top two and must choose between the two. Selection results must be reported to the club once complete.

Section 3 - Method of Removing Officers:

Should any member of the Executive Board be judged to be deficient in their duties, an appeal for evaluation may be made by a member of the Executive or Minor Board to the other members of the Executive Board and/or Faculty Advisor. The Executive Board and Minor Board of the club, assuming at least two-thirds are present for the vote, may remove the Officer from office upon reaching a two-thirds approval vote. Officers will then run a special election to fill that vacancy, as detailed in Article IV Section 5.

Section 4 - Method of Removing Minor Board Members:

Should any member of the Minor Board be judged to be deficient in their duties, an appeal for evaluation may be made by their Director to the other members of the Executive Board. The Executive Board and Minor Board of the club, assuming at least two-thirds are present for the vote, may remove the person from office upon reaching a two-thirds approval vote. Officers may then appoint that position to another member of this organization or to temporarily create a vacancy in that position if no suitable replacement is found.

Section 5 - Executive Board Vacancies:

Vacancies in leadership shall be filled as soon as possible by a special election under the same procedure of normal elections, should an Officer resign or be removed during the school year. If an Officer decides to resign during the year, they must notify the rest of the Executive Board with two weeks and aid in the selection and transition of the member to take their position.

Article V - Meetings

Section 1 - General Body Meetings:

General Body Meetings will primarily be called monthly by the President. In the case that the President is unable to hold the meeting, meetings shall be run by the next highest ranking officer as ranked in Article Article II, Section 2. The set dates and times for each meeting shall be established at the beginning of each semester.

Section 2 - Branch Meetings:

The four branches of the Club are: Competitive, Community, Public Relations, and Financial. Branch Meetings, consisting of the Director, related Minor Board positions, and Minor Board committees, are to be held weekly, at a minimum, for each Branch. Other Branch Meetings will be run and scheduled separately by their respective Directors but should be communicated to the Executive Board.

Section 3 - Executive Board Meetings:

Executive Board Meetings, consisting of the Executive Board and any other positions as decided by the President, are to be hosted every other week, at the minimum.

Section 4 - Special Meetings:

Special Meetings may be called at any time by the President and should include all members of the Executive Board and Minor Board. Special Meetings should only be called on urgent whole-club measures, including but not limited to Executive Board impeachment, a financial crisis, or amendment voting.

Article VI - Amendments

Section 1 - Proposal:

Proposed amendments should be in writing and read during the Executive Board Meeting in which they are proposed. They should be read again at the subsequent meeting and then voted upon by Executive Board and Minor Board. Proposals should be made available to members for review following the meeting in which they are proposed.

Section 2 - Voting Requirements:

This Constitution can only be amended by two-thirds approval among the Executive Board and Minor Board, granted that at least two-thirds of the Executive Board and Minor Board are present to vote. If a quorum, defined by two-thirds, cannot be reached within three consecutive Executive Board Meetings, then there will be a mandatory absentee vote.

Section 3 - Amendments Made

Below, the amendments made to this Constitution shall be listed.
