Article I – Name, Purpose, and Non-Discrimination Policy of the Organization

Section 1: Name:

National Retail Federation Student Association at Ohio State University (NRFSA)

Section 2: Purpose:

The purpose of the NRFSA is to provide students with opportunities within the professional retail community. The organization has the resources and network provided by the National Retail Federation Foundation, including stipends to attend the NRF Foundation Student Program in NYC in January of 2021, which is considered the biggest retail hiring event in the country for students. Club members will participate in events including speakers, panel discussions, scholarship application planning, and community service activities. Membership is open to all majors that have an interest in a career in the fashion industry.

Section 3: Non-Discrimination Policy:

This organization does not discriminate on the basis of age, ancestry, color, disability, gender identity or expression, genetic information, HIV/AIDS status, military status, national origin, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, protected veteran status, or any other bases under the law, in its activities, programs, admission, and employment.

As a student organization at The Ohio State University, NRFSA expects its members to conduct themselves in a manner that maintains an environment free from sexual misconduct. All members are responsible for adhering to University Policy 1.15, which can be found here: <https://hr.osu.edu/public/documents/policy/policy115.pdf>.

If you or someone you know has been sexually harassed or assaulted, you may find the appropriate resources at <http://titleIX.osu.edu> or by contacting the Ohio State Title IX Coordinator at titleIX@osu.edu.

Article II – Membership: Qualifications and categories of membership.

Active members of NRFSA are limited to current Ohio State University students. Any current student can join NRFSA as long as there is an interest in our purpose and goals.

Article III – Methods for Removing Members and Executive Officers.

III.a. If a member engages in behavior that is detrimental to advancing the purpose of this organization, violates the organization's constitution or by-laws, or violates the Code of Student Conduct, university policy, or federal, state or local law, the member may be removed through a majority vote of the officers in consultation with the organization's advisor.

III.b. Any elected officer of the chapter may be removed from their position for cause. Cause for removal includes, but is not limited to: violation of the constitution or by-laws, failure to perform duties, or any behavior that is detrimental to advancing the purpose of this organization, including violations of the Student Code of Conduct, university policy, or federal, state, or local laws. The Executive Committee may act for removal upon a two-thirds affirmative vote of the executive board in consultation with the organization's advisor.

III.c. In the event that the reason for member removal is protected by the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) or cannot otherwise be shared with members (e.g., while an investigation is pending), the executive board, in consultation with the organization's advisor, may vote to temporarily suspend a member or executive officer.

Article IV – Organizational Leadership: Titles, Terms of Office, Type of Selection, and Duties of the Leaders.

President:

The President has a one year term and is selected through an application and interview process conducted by the current Executive Team. The President is responsible for coordinating meetings, as well as setting the goals and vision for the organization. The President is also the liaison between the university members and the National Retail Federation and will be nominated as the Student Ambassador.

Vice President (or Co-President):

The Vice President has a one year term and is selected through an application and interview process conducted by the current Executive Team. The Vice President is responsible for assisting with the coordination of meetings, communication with the organization's members, and enacting the goals of the organization.

Treasurer:

The Treasurer has a one year term and is selected through an application and interview process conducted by the current Executive Team. The Treasurer is responsible for accurately accounting of all of the organization's expenses, as well as applying for funding through the school.

Social Media Officer:

The Social Media Officer has a one year term and is selected through an application and interview process conducted by the current Executive Team. The Social Media Officer is responsible for communicating the organization's events and vision through the use of social media platforms to the general members as well as the public. They are also responsible for meeting the monthly posting requirements set by the National Retail Federation.

Fundraising Officer:

The Fundraising Officer has a one year term and is selected through an application and interview process conducted by the current Executive Team. The Fundraising Officer is responsible for conducting a minimum of 3 events per semester in office. The funds raised are intended to assist members in attending the National Retail Federation Foundation Student Program in New York City every January.

Article V – Election/Selection of Organizational Leadership.

Elections for officers will occur every December, with the new term of leadership starting in January. Officers will be selected through an application and interview process conducted by the current Executive Team.
