Article I - Name, Purpose, and Non-Discrimination Policy of the Organization.

Section 1 – Name: The name of this organization is March of Dimes at Ohio State.

Section 2 – Purpose: Premature birth (birth before 37 weeks of pregnancy) and its complications are the #1 cause of death of babies in the United States. Our mission aligns with that of the March of Dimes: to lead the fight for the health of all moms and babies, no matter their age, socio-economic background, or demographics. Through social programs and volunteer opportunities, students will unite upon a common goal of promoting good health for mothers worldwide.

March of Dimes at Ohio State is affiliated with March of Dimes Foundation operating in White Plains, NY. The website of March of Dimes Foundation is www.marchofdimes.com.

Section 3 – Non-Discrimination Policy of the Organization: “The Ohio State University is committed to building and maintaining a diverse community to reflect human diversity and to improve opportunities for all. The university is committed to equal opportunity, affirmative action, and eliminating discrimination. This commitment is both a moral imperative consistent with an intellectual community that celebrates individual differences and diversity, as well as a matter of law.

This organization does not discriminate on the basis of age, ancestry, color, disability, gender identity or expression, genetic information, HIV/AIDS status, military status, national origin, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, protected veteran status, or any other bases under the law, in its activities, programs, admission, and employment.”

As a student organization at The Ohio State University, March of Dimes at Ohio State expects its members to conduct themselves in a manner that maintains an environment free from sexual misconduct. All members are responsible for adhering to University Policy 1.15, which can be found here: <https://hr.osu.edu/public/documents/policy/policy115.pdf>.

If you or someone you know has been sexually harassed or assaulted, you may find the appropriate resources at <http://titleIX.osu.edu> or by contacting the Ohio State Title IX Coordinator at titleIX@osu.edu.
