MICHAEL E. MORITZ COLLEGE OF LAW
STUDENT BAR ASSOCIATION CONSTITUTION

ARTICLE I: THE STUDENT BAR ASSOCIATION

Section A: Name

1. The name of this organization shall be the Student Bar Association at The Ohio State University Michael E. Moritz College of Law, and shall be referred to as “SBA” in all SBA governing documents.
2. The Michael E. Moritz College of Law will be referred to as “Moritz” in all SBA governing documents.

Section B: Purpose

The purpose of this organization is:

1. To represent the issues, opinions, and ideas of all Moritz students to the faculty, staff, and administration of Moritz and The Ohio State University.
2. To serve as a liaison between Moritz students, Moritz administration and faculty, and the legal community.
3. To provide support and funding for programming and student organizations at Moritz.
4. To serve as a forum for the discussion of academic and professional issues and ideas.
5. To organize student social and recreational events at Moritz.

Section C: Non-Discrimination Policy

This organization does not discriminate on the basis of age, ancestry, color, disability, gender identity or expression, genetic information, HIV/AIDS status, military status, national origin, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, protected veteran status, or any other bases under the law, in its activities, programs, admission, and employment.

Section D: Powers

SBA shall be the student representative body at Moritz. SBA shall have the power to carry out its necessary and proper functions, as outlined in its governing documents and acts of the Senate.

Section E: Membership

All students enrolled at Moritz or a Moritz joint-degree program shall be members of SBA. All Moritz students are entitled to vote in SBA Senate elections, run or apply for SBA Senate positions, and participate in SBA sponsored events. However, only qualified electors are entitled to vote in the spring elections.

- i. If a member engages in behavior that is detrimental to advancing the purpose of this organization, violates the organization’s constitution or by-laws, or violates the Code of Student Conduct, university policy, or federal, state or local law, the member may be removed according to the procedures outlined in Article III.

Section F: The SBA Advisor

The Advisor shall be a faculty member at Moritz, selected by the Dean. The Advisor shall be responsible for providing continuity to the organization and working with the Treasurer to ensure SBA maintains its tax-exempt status.

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY
MICHAEL E. MORITZ COLLEGE OF LAW
STUDENT BAR ASSOCIATION CONSTITUTION

- ii. All LLM students shall be allowed to vote for the LLM Senator(s) in the manner prescribed by the Elections & Nominations Committee.

Section B: Nomination of Candidates

1. A student must be in good-standing, enrolled in, and actively attending classes at the Moritz College of Law or engaged in a joint-degree program with the Moritz College of Law, for both the Autumn and Winter Semesters to be an eligible candidate in any SBA election.
2. Nominations for any elected position shall be made in the manner prescribed by the Elections & Nominations Committee.
3. Every candidate in an SBA election shall provide a personal statement to be posted in a manner accessible to the Moritz Student Body as manner prescribed by the Elections & Nominations Committee.

Section C: Elections & Nominations Committee

1. The Elections & Nominations Committee shall have the authority to promulgate rules for the conduct of elections, including but not limited to: petition deadlines, campaign literature distribution policies, and debate participation.
2. Only rising 3Ls are eligible for the position of Elections & Nominations Committee Chair.
2. The Elections & Nominations Committee shall solicit applications for all vacant and appointed positions and forward a recommendation to the President for appointment.
3. One member from each class shall be represented on the committee.

Section D: Manner of Election

1. A candidate will be declared winner of an election for SBA office upon receiving a simple majority of all votes cast.
2. Each election shall utilize a system of instant runoff voting (IRV) in which voters shall rank the candidates in order of preference in descending order. Voters must indicate a first preference and may rank other candidates in descending order.
3. If one candidate does not receive a simple majority, the following procedures are used to select the winner:
 - i. The candidate receiving the lowest number of votes will be eliminated from contention.
 - ii. Ballots cast for the eliminated candidate will be reallocated to the remaining candidates according to each ballot's next highest ranked candidate.
 - iii. If the next highest ranked candidate has already been eliminated, the ballot will be allocated to the highest ranked candidate still in contention.
 - iv. If a ballot cannot be allocated to an eligible candidate, the ballot will continue to count toward the total number of votes cast only for purposes of determining a simple majority.
 - v. Following reallocation, if a candidate now has a simple majority of votes cast for that office, they will be declared the winner. If there is still no winner, the above process is repeated until one candidate receives a simple majority.
 - vi. For positions with multiple seats, after the first candidate has received a simple majority of votes, steps (i)-(v) will be repeated until all seats are filled.

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY
MICHAEL E. MORITZ COLLEGE OF LAW
STUDENT BAR ASSOCIATION CONSTITUTION

4. If the IRV procedure described in subsection 3 of this section results in a tie among the two remaining candidates, the candidate with the higher number of 1st Preference Votes will win the election.
 - i. In the event both remaining candidates have the same number of 1st Preference Votes, the candidate with the most 2nd Preference Votes will win the election.
 - ii. In the event both remaining candidates have the same number of 1st Preference Votes and 2nd Preference Votes, the Elections & Nominations Committee and the outgoing SBA Executive Board will conduct interviews of the two remaining candidates and may break the tie in any manner agreed to by a unanimous vote of both the Elections & Nominations Committee and the outgoing SBA Executive Board.
5. Candidates are permitted to run for multiple positions, but in no event shall a candidate be elected to two or more positions.
 - i. In the event that a candidate receives a majority for multiple positions, the Elections & Nominations Committee Chair shall contact the candidate, who will be given 12 hours to decide which position they wish to accept.

Section E: Vacancies

1. Positions not filled in a designated election shall be considered vacant.
2. The Elections & Nominations Committee shall make recommendations for appointment to the President for all vacancies in any Moritz Faculty Committee, Standing Committee, or Executive Board position other than President. The President shall consider the recommendations and shall nominate students to fill any vacancies subject to the advice and consent of the Senate.

Section G: Installation

All Senators shall be installed at their first meeting following certification of the election results by the sitting Senate, and shall have the full powers of their position upon being sworn into office.

ARTICLE V: CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS

Section A: Constitutional Amendments may be introduced by either:

1. A petition signed by 1/5 of Moritz students in favor of a referendum; or
2. Through Senate recommendation and approval by a 2/3 vote of the Senate.

Section B: Ratification of Amendments must occur by either:

1. If done by referendum, the Senate shall hold 1 public hearing where the question is discussed and debated. 5 academic days after the public hearing, the question is voted upon by SBA. A majority of Moritz students voting is required to approve the amendment.
2. If done by Senate recommendation, the Senate shall hold 2 public hearings where the question is discussed and debated. 5 academic days after the last public hearing, the question is voted upon by the Moritz student body. A majority of Moritz students voting is required to approve the amendment.
