Article VI – Elections

Elections will be held at the last scheduled meeting of the year during spring quarter. Current officers have the choice of running for their office again or resigning. New nominations for officers will be decided by players recommending other players. Players have the choice to accept or reject the nomination before voting begins. Players may be nominated for more than one category. Voting will take place by paper ballot starting with the President. The President will count the votes, with a non-officer member watching. Any member of the team can call for a vote to impeach an officer. $\frac{3}{4}$ of the team must agree on the impeachment vote. Officers may be removed from their position by a $\frac{2}{3}$ vote of the club officers. There are six components of the club officers. One component is for each officer position. One component is for the five-member fundraising committee. This component must reach a $\frac{3}{5}$ vote in order to establish its individual component vote.

Article VII – Funds

Club funds are allocated based on the goals and vision of the basketball club for the year with some consideration for the following year. Club dues for each year will be determined by the officers in place at the end of each spring quarter. Club dues are non-refundable and help cover referees, equipment, van rentals, uniforms, and travel expenses. Club dues for the 2022-2023 basketball season will be set at $300. This fee will be due prior to the first game of the 2022-2023 basketball season. Fundraising and sponsorship projects will be completed by all members in order to raise additional money for the club. They are to be scheduled by the Fundraising Coordinator. As stated in Article III, club members are required to participate in a set percentage of fundraising events. Monetary and/or game fines will be levied against any member or officer that does not complete the necessary amount of fundraisers. Extenuating circumstances will be reviewed by the president, vice president and/or head coach.

Article VIII – Equipment

All members of the Ohio State University Basketball Club shall be issued the following equipment for the 2022-2023 basketball season after the complete payment of club dues:

- (1) Practice Jersey
- (1) Game Jersey
- (1) Pair of Game Shorts
- (1) Shooting Shirt

Once the equipment mentioned above has been issued to a member, it then becomes the sole responsibility of that member to maintain the care and possession of the equipment he/she has been issued. In the event that a member damages or loses any item mentioned above, he/she will be required to pay a $50 replacement fee for each piece of equipment that is damaged or lost.

Article IX – Advisor

The Ohio State University Basketball Club advisor shall be a faculty/staff member of the Ohio State University that has an interest in the club team. He/she will also advise the club and will assist in any manner necessary.

Article X – Coaching Staff

The club officers will conduct private interviews, and collectively decide on a coaching staff, who is not a current player or an officer of the team. The coaching staff will be financially compensated depending on their commitment and club funding allocations. Article XI – Travel Arrangements The President and the Vice-President will approve all the travel arrangements for the basketball club. Club members are expected to be at the designated departure point 30 minutes before the designated departure time. Team members are responsible for their own expenses on road trips unless otherwise noted.

Article XII – Amendments

Any member of the Ohio State University Basketball Club may suggest an amendment to this Constitution. The amendment must be typed and given to a club officer. The member will have the opportunity to defend his or her suggestion before the officer board. The club officers will then privately vote on whether to accept or reject the amendment. There must be a majority vote to revise the constitution. Amendments to the constitution will be made at the last meeting of every year during spring quarter. Article XIII- Removal of Officer A complaint made about an officer must be stated at an executive board meeting or practice. A majority vote of the executive committee will be required to raise the complaint at the next general body meeting. A 2/3rds vote of the paid members will be required to impeach and consequently remove the officer.

Article XIV- Removal of Coach

A complaint made about the coach must be stated at an executive board meeting or practice. A majority vote of the executive committee will be required to raise the complaint at the next general body meeting. A 2/3rds vote of the paid members will be required to remove the coach. Article XV– Code of Student Conduct The Ohio State University Code of Student Conduct applies to the team and its individual members.

Article XVI – Continuity in Case of Suspension

If the team is suspended for violating the Code of Student Conduct, Competitive Sports will appoint an Interim President and an Interim Treasurer. The Interim President and Interim Treasurer may (1) transfer signatures and check writing authority for the organization’s bank account to themselves within thirty days of the suspension, (2) pay existing financial obligations out of the organization’s current funds, and (3) when the period of suspension ends, take appropriate steps with Student Activities to re-register as a student organization. Further, the Interim President and Interim Treasurer shall inventory the organization’s equipment and write a plan for its storage and safekeeping during the suspension period. This plan must be submitted to Competitive Sports within the first thirty days of the suspension. During this suspension no new coaches or staff should be hired during this time. All club assets are frozen during this suspension period meaning nothing should be bought or sold during this time. Should the Interim President or Interim Treasurer wish to take any additional actions, they must seek advance approval from Competitive Sports.

Article XVII – Return to Competitive Sports

In order to return as a recognized Sport Club team, The Interim President must provide Competitive Sports with documentation that team is a recognized student organization. The Interim President must also provide a roster of at least 15 students to Competitive Sports along with a written plan to hold elections. This plan should, to the extent possible due to the terms, length and timing of the suspension, resemble the provisions contained in Article VI.

Article XVIII - Ohio State University Non-discrimination Policy

This organization does not discriminate on the basis of age, ancestry, color, disability, gender identity or expression, genetic information, HIV/AIDS status, military status, national origin, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, protected veteran status, or any other bases under the law, in its activities, programs, admission, and employment.

Agreement of Compliance

This is to certify that I have read the Constitution of The Ohio State University Basketball Club. I understand all articles of this document and will comply with all of its requirements in order to retain membership in The Ohio State University Basketball Club.
