- Section 1: Students for Justice in Palestine at The Ohio State University shall be the name of this organization. On all official documents and publications that the organization sponsors, its name or the abbreviation SJP OSU must be written. The Ohio Union at Ohio State University will serve as the organization's main office.

 - Our dedication to the human rights of the Palestinian people is rooted in a fundamental respect for the human rights of all people. We condemn the racism and discrimination underlying the policies and laws of the state of Israel and reject all forms of hatred or discrimination against any religious, racial, or ethnic group in general. We welcome individuals of all ethnic and religious backgrounds to join in solidarity with the struggle for justice for all in Palestine.

ARTICLE II – PURPOSE

The Ohio State University Students for Justice in Palestine is a democratic student organization, whose main focus is the liberation and self-determinism of the Palestinian people; this includes Palestinians within Israel, the Occupied Territories, and diaspora. SJP believes that a crucial step towards a practical political solution relies on justice not only for some, but for all as equal citizens.

We condemn Israel's non-compliance with international law.

We firmly reject the apartheid system Palestinians in the territories have and continue to live under. We affirm that all peoples are entitled to human rights and the protection of international law. We oppose all forms of racism, including but not limited to, Islamophobia, anti-Semitism, and white supremacy.

We oppose all forms of oppression towards marginalized groups globally; particularly we emphasize our solidarity with other oppressed indigenous peoples. We understand that our struggle is inherently linked to a long history of global colonialism, and seek to find association with groups also working for liberation and recognition.

We firmly reject the military occupation as well as all other forms of state and institutionalized violence. This includes the blockade on Gaza, and the Apartheid Wall. We condemn repression and affirm our right to self-expression; we stand in solidarity with Palestinian political prisoners within Israeli prisons, who are being unjustly held for doing the same.

We insist and that the Palestinian Question be answered with Palestinian self-determinism. We seek to create a dialogue on the Palestinian perspective and encourage all to participate with us.

SJP recognizes and supports the 2005 call to boycott, divest, and sanction. BDS should be maintained until Israel meets its obligation to recognize the Palestinian people's inalienable right to self-determination and fully complies with the precepts of international law by:

1. Ending its occupation and colonization of all Arab lands, dismantling the Wall and freeing all Palestinian and Arab political prisoners.
2. Recognizing the fundamental rights of the Arab-Palestinian citizens of Israel to full equality; and,
3. Respecting, protecting and promoting the rights of Palestinian refugees to return to their homes and properties as stipulated in UN General Assembly resolution 194
