

The Ohio State University Inaayat Dance Team Constitution

Preamble

With authority derived from the undergraduate student body and existence recognized by the faculty and administration of this university, this student organization shall dedicate itself to the betterment and promotion of visual and performing arts. It shall be accessible to undergraduate students who share a keen interest in the field of Indian Classical Dance.

We recognize that certain statutes of the Ohio Revised Code and bylaws of The Ohio State University Board Of Trustees govern the administration of The Ohio State University. Accordingly, we recognize our freedoms with respect to these existing statutes.

Article I. Name

The organization governed by this document is known officially as “The Ohio State University Inaayat Dance Team.” It may also be referred to as “OSU Inaayat” in this constitution and other official documents. Members of the organization may refer to “The Ohio State University Inaayat Dance Team” by colloquial or unofficial names such as “Inaayat” outside of official documents and agendas.

Article II. Purpose

The purpose of OSU Inaayat is to appeal to undergraduate students who share a keen interest in the field of Indian Classical Dance. A primary function of OSU Inaayat is to encourage appreciation for Indian Classical dance at Ohio State through recruitment of student dancers and participation in campus and community events as well as inter-collegiate dance competitions.

Article III. Non-Discrimination Policy

This organization does not discriminate on the basis of age, ancestry, color, disability, gender identity or expression, genetic information, HIV/AIDS status, military status, national origin, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, protected veteran status, or any other bases under the law, in its activities, programs, admission, and employment.

Article IV. Membership

The membership of OSU Inaayat consists of prospective members attending workshops held at the beginning of the Fall semester. Only after attending at least one workshop, they can audition to be a part of the student organization. The Executive Board of this student organization will assess every prospective member's audition with care and will notify them of their final decision via email.
