Sigma Epsilon Phi
The Orthodox Students of The Ohio State University
Constitution

Updated May 14, 2022

Preamble:

We, the students of the Orthodox faith and the Philorthodox of The Ohio State University, are here in order to establish a social Fraternity organization to promote the principles of brotherhood; to create an outlet for social activities and to stimulate a sincere interest in the Orthodox faith, culture, and community affairs, do hereby ordain and establish this Constitution for The Ohio State University chapter of the Sigma Epsilon Phi Fraternity.

Article I – Organization Name

The name of this organization shall be Sigma Epsilon Phi Fraternity.

Article II – Organization Purpose

- I. To unite its members in a close bond of friendship, seeking to instill in them a spirit of mutual love and helpfulness, to the end that each member and the fraternity as a whole may attain social, moral, and intellectual excellence.
- II. To cooperate with the administrative officials and faculties of The Ohio State University and other organizations.
- III. To give financial assistance to deserving members through annual scholarships in order to enable them to complete their educational work.
- IV. To uphold the pillars of brotherhood, Orthodoxy, Hellenism, and service

Article III – General Membership Guidelines

Section 1 – Membership Admission

- I. A newcomer shall be defined as any individual who demonstrates a sincere and consistent interest in becoming a member but has not yet been formally initiated.
- II. All persons applying for membership are subject to a review by the Judicial Committee for the purpose of determining the qualifications of each newcomer as defined by the by-laws.
- III. A newcomer's admission shall not be discriminated against on the basis of age, ancestry, color, disability, gender identity or expression, genetic information, HIV/AIDS status, military status, national origin, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, protected veteran status, or any other basis in accordance with Ohio State Student Organizations' Guidelines.
- IV. Only students of The Ohio State University and its satellite campuses shall be allowed to become a member or to maintain membership.

Section 2 – New Member Eligibility and Initiation

- I. Newcomers become eligible for the formal initiation ceremony only after fulfillment of the requirements of active participation as a newcomer in this Fraternity and the obligation of the newcomer fee, which shall fulfill the dues requirement of the first year.
- II. Membership and its privileges shall be initiated only after full participation in the formal initiation ceremony. It is the obligation of every newly inducted member to sign the membership book.
- III. The formal initiation ceremony shall be performed every Spring Semester, in February, as long as there is at least one newcomer who is to be formally initiated.

Section 3 – Expulsion from the Fraternity

Failure to observe this constitution or any attempts to frustrate its goals shall be cause for expulsion from this Fraternity. Such members may be removed from membership by using the impeachment procedure. Such persons shall be readmitted to the Fraternity only upon a 2/3 majority vote of the membership present.
