

Article I - Name, Purpose, and Non-Discrimination Policy of the Organization.

Name: Calisthenics Club at Ohio State

Purpose: We aim to create an inclusive environment using calisthenics and bodyweight training sessions. Our primary target is the beginners, who have little to no experience in exercising. Through the club activities, our members will develop basic knowledge on exercise movements and a healthy sustainable fitness lifestyle.

Non-Discrimination Policy:

Calisthenics Club at Ohio State does not discriminate on the basis of age, ancestry, color, disability, gender identity or expression, genetic information, HIV/AIDS status, military status, national origin, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, protected veteran status, or any other bases under the law, in its activities, programs, admission, and employment.

As a student organization at The Ohio State University, Calisthenics Club at Ohio State expects its members to conduct themselves in a manner that maintains an environment free from sexual misconduct. All members are responsible for adhering to University Policy 1.15, which can be found here: <https://hr.osu.edu/public/documents/policy/policy115.pdf>.

If you or someone you know has been sexually harassed or assaulted, you may find the appropriate resources at <http://titleIX.osu.edu> or by contacting the Ohio State Title IX Coordinator at titleIX@osu.edu.

Article II - Membership

As required by the Guidelines for Student Organizations, 90% of the membership of Calisthenics Club at Ohio State must include current Ohio State University students. Active members and Executive Committee are able to make decisions regarding the membership of community and other non-student members of an organization. Community or other non-student members may be temporarily suspended with a majority vote of the Executive Committee.

Qualifications:

We are open to anyone studying at the Ohio State University. Those who are interested in becoming a member of the club can show up to any of our weekly practices. Members must be enlisted on the Calisthenics Club at Ohio State roster and actively participating in our weekly training sessions. Members are required to pay dues after one free trial. Dues will be dependent on the semester.

Rights and Privileges:

All members have the privilege of participating in practices, fundraising, and voting or entering the officer election.

Article III – Methods for Removing Members and Executive Officers

Member Removal Process

Any club members may be removed for the following reason(s): violation of the organization's constitution, failure to pay dues, being disruptive to individual members or operations of the club, or engaging in illegal behaviors. In the case of any of these instances, the member may be removed through a majority vote of the officers in consultation with the organization's advisor.

Executive Officer Removal Process

Any elected officer may be removed from their position for cause. Cause for removal includes, but is not limited to: violation of the club constitution, failure to perform duties, or any behavior that is detrimental to advancing the purpose of this organization, including violations of the Student Code of Conduct, university policy, or federal, state, or local laws. The Executive Committee will receive a warning for the first violation. Upon the second violation, the officer may be removed through a majority vote of the officers in consultation with the organization's advisor.

In the event that the reason for member removal is protected by the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) or cannot otherwise be shared with members (e.g., while an investigation is pending), the executive board, in consultation with the organization's advisor, may vote to temporarily suspend a member or executive officer.
