

ORTHODOX CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP OF THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY CONSTITUTION

PREAMBLE

We, the undersigned Orthodox Christians and other persons interested in Orthodox Christianity of The Ohio State University community, wishing to establish a profound and lasting fellowship among ourselves and others who share these interests, and seeking ways to dedicate ourselves and each other and our whole life to Christ our God, establish this Orthodox Christian Fellowship for the community of The Ohio State University.

ARTICLE I – NAME

The name of the organization shall be "The Orthodox Christian Fellowship of The Ohio State University."

ARTICLE II -- AIMS AND OBJECTIVES

Section 1 To support fellowship on campus, to experience and witness the Orthodox Christian Church through community life, prayer, service to others and study of the Faith (Acts 2:42). Furthermore, OCF will work to nurture and strengthen love for Jesus Christ and His Church in its fullness at this most critical juncture of human life through and offer an opportunity for Orthodox Christian students and those interested in the Orthodox Christian Church to become more fully acquainted with and informed about Orthodox Christianity.

Section 2. To deepen the spiritual and devotional life of university and college students and to promote earnest study of Orthodox Christian doctrine, practice and living.

Section 3. To strengthen ties between students of the Orthodox Christian Faith, to develop a more fruitful fellowship among them, and to further cooperation with other Christian organizations with similar aims.

Section 4. To bear witness on campus to the unique message of the Orthodox Church by affirming its continuity in the course of history from the Apostolic beginnings.

Section 5. To further either directly or indirectly, the welfare of students in body, mind and spirit, all in harmony with the Christian purpose.

Section 6. To unite Orthodox students in Orthodox worship.

Section 7. To sponsor activities such as study groups, Christian service, and lectures by specialists on topics of interest to the group.

Section 8. To promote and participate in national programs offered by Orthodox Christian Fellowship, a religious corporation, which is a national organization authorized by and affiliated with the Standing Conference of Canonical Orthodox Bishops in the Americas.

ARTICLE III -- MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Membership in the Orthodox Christian Fellowship of The Ohio State University shall be open to all university students. Membership shall not be denied on the basis of age, color, disability, gender identity or expression, national origin, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, or veteran status.

Section 2. Membership of the Orthodox Christian Fellowship shall be broken down into active and associate membership. Active membership shall be composed of all registered students, faculty, and staff with a concern for furthering the purpose of this group.

Section 3. Associate membership shall be composed of all others interested in furthering the purpose of the organization. Associate members may not hold office, vote, preside, officiate or solicit funds on behalf of the organization.
